Exodus 20:3-5

Ephesians 2:10

James 1:26-27

James 1:26-27 (Greek Paraphrased)

If anyone considers himself a Worshipper; whose passion is to serve and provide service to God, who is reverent and shows reverence for God and is devout and God fearing, and does not keep his tongue in check by keeping a rein on his mouth and the language or speech that comes out of it, he is only tricking and fooling himself and his worship or passion to serve and provide service to God, his act of reverence for God and his devoutness towards God is futile, useless and empty.

Worship; someone whose passion is to serve and provide service to God, who is reverent and shows reverence for God and is devout and God fearing that God our Father accepts as clean, pure and innocent is this: to visit, show concern, care for and come to the help and aid of orphans and widows in their times of trouble, times of oppression, times of hardship, times of affliction and times of anguish and to keep himself or herself without spot, without blemish or defect caused by the world's system that is opposed to God.
